

St Moninne of Killeavy
6th July

PRAYER TO St Moninne

Oh, blessed Saint Moninne, guide of the wayward
and patron of the devout, we beseech thy intercession.
Guide our hearts to sincere prayer, lead us towards God's unfailing love.
Through your example,
may we find the courage to surrender ourselves fully to His divine will,
in the same spirit with which you served.
Help us to understand,
that only through self-surrender,
can true joy be found.
Guide us in our pilgrimage, lead us from darkness into light,
from falsehood towards truth,
from death towards life eternal.
Amen.

Ballyclog & Donaghery Parish Bulletin

13th Sunday in Ordinary Time 30th June 2024

There's always a lovely sense of anticipation as we hit the end of June – schools are about to close for two months, everyone starts to turn their heads to the thoughts of holidays and we all look forward to things getting a little more quiet and relaxed for a while. Summer is a good time that brings back the happiest of memories and a hint of the child inside us all that just wants to enjoy freedom and a good time. After months of looking forward to it – it's finally here and we're all ready for it. Like everyone else the Parish looks forward to a little peace and quiet over the next month or two also and as we reach the final bulletin before the holidays it's only proper to extend a thank you to all who have worked so hard in the Parish over the past few months and to wish you all well for the summer break. A sincere words of thanks to Deacon Malachy. our Sacristans, readers, Eucharistic ministers, collectors, altar servers, choir and musicians, ministers to the sick, prayer leaders, groundsmen, cleaners, secretary and our various groups and Councils and all who have been part of Parish life over the past year for your generosity of time, measured advice and interest. A special word of thanks to all who have been part of all our services and who have supported the Parish in all that we do - as always your warmth and kindness makes all the difference. Over the summer months I hope you all get an opportunity to rest and relax and forget about the normal worries and woes of life. We can all fill our minds with so many concerns and fill our days rushing around trying to complete every task and do everything and sometimes it doesn't do any hurt at all to leave things sit for a while. Tomorrow is a wonderful day and lots can be done on it, but today is always an ever better day and one that should be enjoyed. This summer why not cast your minds back to when you were a child being released for the summer – we were determined to enjoy every moment of the freedom, we were determined to spend as much time doing as little as we could with our friends, we were sure to enjoy home, family and a good break from the routine. And because of those days and ways we all have the happiest of memories stored up. If you get the opportunity, spend these summer days with those who mean the most, build new memories and share happy times whenever you can. Smile, rest, sleep and eat and just forget about the serious sides of life if you can. "Rest is not idleness, and to lie sometimes on the grass under trees on a summer's day, is by no means a waste of time." (John Lubbock). Have a most wonderful summer and make every day a good time and a reason to be glad for all we have in our lives.

With best wishes for the week – Fr O'Neill
